General Guidelines

- No coin operated machines may be set up in an exhibitor's booth for pay-for-play.
- Pinball machines, displays, and goods located inside exhibitor booths must be easily and safely accessible to showdown participants from the public aisles. Please do not obstruct your sales and show items from public view.
- Set up is 3 p.m - 7 p.m. on 4/22/10 and from 7 a.m. - noon on 4/23/10. All games presented for use during the Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown on main show floor must be in playable condition and set to free play for the duration of the show.
- All electrical extension cords must be secured so as to not pose a threat to the public, or public space and walkways.
- By purchasing booth space at the April 23-25 Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown, the exhibitor and all exhibitor guests, employees, and associates agrees to all conditions, rules, and regulations set forth by Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown, Jefferson County Fairgrounds, the state of Colorado, and all other regulating authorities.
- By purchasing booth space at the April 23-25 Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown, the exhibitor understands that the Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown and its staff, organizers, and volunteers (said parties) are not responsible for any lost, damaged, or stolen property. Said parties are not liable for any personal injuries of any kind. Said parties are not responsible for any acts of God/nature (including, but not limited to lightning, rain, tornados, wind, hail and/or resulting damages).
- Inoperative equipment is to be placed in exhibitor's booth space.
- The sale of any food, beverages, including alcohol, cigarettes, or drug paraphernalia is strictly prohibited.
- The exhibitor's reservation cannot be sublet, assigned, or transferred.
- Sellers must clean up their booth space. No trash or discards of any kind may be left behind. If the exhibitors space is not clean, a $50.00 cleaning fee will be charged.
- Non-compliance with Rocky Mountain Pinball Guidelines will result in forfeiture of booth space cost and expulsion from the Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown.
- Rocky Mountain Pinball showdown reserves the right to restrict the sale, display, or distribution of any printed material, photographs, books, magazines, pictures, or other representation in order to maintain a proper family environment.
- Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown reserves the right at any time to prohibit any additional items from being sold or traded and to refuse admission to any seller.
- The sale, display, or distribution of merchandise that infringes upon copyrighted designs or materials or bears counterfeit trademarks is strictly prohibited.
- It is the exhibitors responsibility to transport all materials (including, but not limited to games or displays) to and from the Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown site. Any machine not removed from the premises by Sunday at 8 p.m. will be charged a transportation fee of $50.00 per machine and a storage fee of $100 per day.
- Exhibitors are solely responsible for the content of their booth(s), and the security of the goods and quality of the services provided. Exhibitors are solely responsible for their pinball machines and its/their security.
- Refunds are available until March 1, 2010. All requests must be made in writing.
- No raffles, lotteries, 'readings', auctions, or amusement rides may be conducted or operated by exhibitors without prior written consent of Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown.
- No animals are allowed at the Rocky Mountain Pinball Showdown per regulations of the fairgrounds.
- All pinball and video game machines on the free-play floor, INCLUDING THOSE FOR SALE, must remain in service and not be transported off the floor until 5 p.m. on Sunday, April 25, and exhibitors will inform buyers that machines purchased are not to be transported off of premises before 5 p.m. on Sunday, April 25. NO EXCEPTIONS.
